

JEREMY A. TAYLOR BIO

Jeremy is a speaker, trainer, and coach. He is charismatic in his approach to developing leaders, encouraging people to dream, and working to restore manhood. His mission is to help people see their value, recognize their potential, and live out their existence.

Soon after the start of his public education career, he shifted his focus to pursue his passion of encouraging people, and he followed his entrepreneurial spirit to do just that.

He has now built a thriving global network marketing business in the health and wellness industry, written two books, D.R.E.A.M. and The 25 Secrets to Staying Excited, and has spoken to tens of thousands of people--people of all age groups and many different backgrounds.

Jeremy and his wife, Jaala, along with their son, Miles, reside in the Lake Cumberland Area of Kentucky. Jesus, people, food, traveling, reading and sports are all some of Jeremy's favorites. He believes that "dreams do come true for people just like you" and "if you're not having fun, you're not doing it right!"
